

Northeastern Seminary Distinguished Alumnus Award

The Distinguished Alumnus Award recognizes a graduate of Northeastern Seminary who exemplifies faithful service in ministry. Candidates may demonstrate one or more of the following characteristics: innovative approaches to ministry, engagement of their cultural context, perseverance in the face of challenges, excellence in Biblical preaching and worship, equipping others to serve, and transformation of self and others through spiritual formation. Candidates may be nominated by faculty, staff, trustees, and graduates of NES. Nominations should include a brief summary of why the person is being recommended.

Nominations may be submitted to the office of the vice president by May 1, 2011 and the selection will be made by a seminary review committee. Presentation of the Alumnus of the Year Award will occur at the Conference on Ministry.
