Rooted in biblical and historic Christian faith, Northeastern Seminary prepares Christ-centered men and women for faithful, effective ministry to the church and the world.

Northeastern Seminary seeks students whose personal lives are characterized by personal integrity and a devotion to high academic and ethical standards.

Northeastern Seminary, which is located on the campus of Roberts Wesleyan College, is part of a Christian tradition that values diversity in thought and behavior. On the other hand, it believes some practices in contemporary society do not represent the biblical ideal. In regard to sexual behaviors, for example, the Seminary expects its students to refrain from sexual activity outside of heterosexual marriage, viewing pornography, and sexual harassment. The use of alcoholic beverages and tobacco are not permitted on the College campus or in Seminary-related activities. Northeastern Seminary expects its faculty, staff, and students to respect and abide by the standards of the Seminary. It also encourages them to find positive and practical ways to support and minister to the Roberts Wesleyan College community.

Northeastern Seminary admits academically-qualified students in accordance with all state and federal non-discrimination laws.

I hereby make application for admission to the Seminary with the full understanding that accepted students abide by the policies and behavioral expectations set forth by the Seminary.

The information supplied in this application is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge. If admitted, I agree to abide by the standards and expectations of the Seminary while on campus or involved in Seminary-related activities.

Do you agree? Yes, I agree No, I do not agree
